

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

SB 150 – HB 269

February 8, 2011

SUMMARY OF BILL: Deletes “Tennessee Association of Business” and replaces it with “Tennessee Chamber of Commerce and Industry” as the organization authorized to submit a list of three nominees to the Petroleum Underground Storage Tank Board. Authorizes rather than requires that certain members be appointed to the Board by the Governor. Requires the Governor to consult with professional organizations prior to making any appointments to the Board. Deletes the requirement that organizations submit a new list of nominees if the Governor does not appoint one of the recommended persons.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumptions:

- The number of members serving on the Petroleum Underground Storage Tank Board will not change.
- Any fiscal impact to the Petroleum Underground Storage Tank Fund associated with a change in how members are appointed to the Board will be not significant.
